

Ideas to fill extra time

Fill in the blanks. Write sentences about the lesson on the board leaving blanks for the children to fill in.

Work on memorizing the articles of Faith, or scriptures relating to the lesson.

Look up scriptures. Scripture chase and/or learn how to use the scriptures.

Games. Word search, guessing game (i.e. "I'm thinking of..."), matching games (using ideas from the lesson).

List the temples of the world.

Review the names of the General Authorities.

Write letters or draw pictures for the missionaries serving from our ward.

Write a thank you letter to the Bishop.

Answer questions. (i.e. What do I want to be? What temple do I want to be married in?)

Write a class letter or invitation to a less active class member.

Finish the sentence (i.e. My favorite part of Primary is...I like the person sitting next to me because...I am thankful for...My favorite Primary song is...)

Act out a Bible or Book of Mormon story (Nephi and the Brass Plates, Moses, Noah, etc.)